GENERAL INFORMATION

Applicants must ensure that they are using the most up to date version of the Application Form and supplementary forms. Where there is any doubt, applicants should contact the school/college where the position applied for is based, or the contact person mentioned in the details of the post.

Applicants are reminded that this is an application for a post in a Catholic Voluntary Aided School / Catholic Voluntary Academy / Catholic Voluntary Multi Academy Trust (if applicable) where the Governing Body / Academy Trust Company / Multi Academy Trust Company is the employer and that the post will be subject to the terms and conditions of the appropriate CES model contract of employment. A copy of the relevant contract will be provided to the applicant if they are shortlisted for interview.

Applicants should note that, in accordance with the safeguarding vulnerable groups' regime, it is their responsibility to have made any necessary registrations relevant at the time of making this application, which are required for people working or volunteering with children. Accordingly, applicants are put on notice that any offer of employment made will be conditional upon the results of checks from the Disclosure & Barring Service ("the DBS") and Teacher Services (regarding teacher prohibition/disqualification from working with children and young people).

Before signing the application form, applicants must ensure that every section has been completed. Failure to complete all relevant sections may result in an application being rejected.

All Application Forms, supplementary forms and any relevant documentary evidence should be sent to the school/college where the position applied for is based, or as instructed in the details of the post. Applicants should not return any Application Form and/or supplementary forms and/or any relevant documentary evidence to the CES. Any applications received by the CES will not be forwarded or returned but shall be securely disposed of.

References

All applicants are required to provide details of at least two, and up to three, referees. A referee who is a current or former employer must have full access to the applicant's personnel records. This is in order to ensure that the information provided is accurate.

There may be situations where the referee does not have full access to an applicant's records for data protection and privacy reasons. If that is the case, the referee will need to be in a position to complete the reference to an acceptable standard with information relating to the applicant's dates of employment. All posts are subject to satisfactory references.

It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that they have obtained their nominated referees' explicit consent to pass on their contact details to the school. Not only is this a matter of courtesy but ensures that the General Data Protection Regulation is being complied with. Please also complete the Consent to Obtain References Form and return it with your application.

Applicants must advise the school/college if they do not want them to contact any of their referees and provide reasons. For example, where applicants are currently employed, they may not wish the school/college to contact their employer until such time that they have given notice to terminate their employment.

Applicants are advised that schools/colleges designated with a religious character in England and Wales are permitted by law to require certain posts to be filled by practising Catholics. In certain specific circumstances, it is possible that a temporary post may be filled by a person who is not a practising Catholic and there is no intention to deter suitable applicants from expressing their interest.

Senior Leadership posts – Applicants are advised that the 'Memorandum on Appointment of Teachers To Catholic Schools' (amended September 2014), provides that 'the posts of Headteacher or Principal, Deputy Headteacher or Deputy Principal and Head or Coordinator of Religious Education are to be filled by practising Catholics'. The Memorandum may be viewed by visiting the CES's website at: <http://www.catholiceducation.org.uk/employment-documents/bishops-memorandum/item/1000049-memorandum-on-appointment-of-teachers-to-catholic-schools>

Teacher posts – Applicants are advised that schools/colleges are entitled to give priority to Catholic applicants. A higher degree of priority may be given to practising Catholic applicants but applications from all Catholic applicants (whether practising or not) are eligible to be given priority over applicants who are not Catholic. Nevertheless, applicants who are not Catholics are welcome to apply.

Support Staff posts – Applicants are advised that schools/colleges (in England only) are entitled to give priority to Catholic applicants where it can be demonstrated that attaching this requirement to a particular post is a proportionate means of achieving a legitimate aim (commonly known as a "genuine occupational requirement"). The recruitment documentation should make clear whether this requirement applies to the post.

Definition of "practising Catholic" - Schools/colleges may provide guidance to the applicant regarding the definition of a "practising Catholic" with the application pack and/or in the event that the applicant is shortlisted for interview.

In summary, all suitably qualified Catholic applicants, regardless of the teaching post for which they are applying, are eligible to be given preference over applicants who are not Catholic. Practising Catholic applicants should nominate their Parish Priest as one of their referees. Those applicants applying for the permanent Senior Leadership posts referenced in the Memorandum must provide such details.

For other teaching posts, Catholics who do not consider themselves to be “practising” may provide a copy of their baptism certificate with their application form, instead of providing a Priest’s reference. Alternatively, they should provide details of the name and address of the Parish where they were baptised and the date of their baptism. For support staff posts, the recruitment documentation should make clear whether being a Catholic is a requirement for the post.

In the event that an applicant is appointed, any failure to disclose the existence of a relationship, whether it be by marriage, blood or as co-habitee, between the applicant or their spouse/civil partner/partner with a member, or an employee, of the Governing Body of the school/college where the post is situated may be considered a disciplinary offence warranting summary dismissal.

Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006

In accordance with the legal requirements of the Immigration, Asylum & Nationality Act 2006 (“the 2006 Act”) (as amended) the Governing Body is under a legal duty to require all members of staff to provide documentary evidence of their entitlement to undertake the position applied for and to ensure that they have an ongoing entitlement to live and work in the UK. These checks need to be carried out for every person the Governing Body employs regardless of race, ethnicity or nationality. Therefore, on conditional offer of employment, and before a successful applicant commences their post, they must provide supporting evidence of their right to live and work in the UK. Generally speaking, the provision of one of the documents listed below will be sufficient proof but applicants are advised to consider the UK Visas and Immigration requirements for preventing illegal working in the UK for a full list of documents that may prove such entitlement which can be found on the Home Office’s website.

The most common proof of entitlement documents are:

- (a) A passport showing that the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK.
- (b) A passport or national identity card showing that the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- (c) A Registration Certificate or Document Certifying Permanent Residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- (d) A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- (e) A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- (f) A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.

- (g) A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no limit on their stay in the UK, together with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- (h) An online right to work check demonstrating that the applicant has either pre-settled or settled status.

The above list is non-exhaustive.

IMMIGRATION ACT 2016

Part 7 of the above Act places a legal duty on those recruiting staff to work in public facing roles within the public sector. Public facing roles within the public sector would include leadership teams, teachers, support staff and others employed to work in state schools. The said duty is to ensure that the applicant is fluent in English or Welsh, as applicable.

The government has produced a code of practice to guide employers on how to implement the requirement without breaching the provisions of the Equality Act 2010.<sup>1</sup>

It is important not to discriminate on the basis of accents and dialects, as this could amount to discrimination on the grounds of race. Note that there is no requirement to test existing staff who are already employed at the school and the code of practice should be considered when recruiting new applicants.

Declaration

The Governing Body has a duty to make a report where the applicant provides false information in prescribed circumstances in accordance with the Education Act 2002.

SUPPLEMENTARY FORMS

Model Recruitment Monitoring Form

Applicants are not required to complete the Recruitment Monitoring Form, however, if they do, they will be helping the school/college to fulfil its duties under the Equality Act 2010.

The Recruitment Monitoring Form will be used purely for monitoring and statistical purposes and will not form part of the application or the recruitment process. The persons involved in the recruitment process will not have sight of the completed Recruitment Monitoring Form.
